

Local Church Manuals, Disciplines
Constitutions and Articles of Faith
1895-1907

These manuals reflect the congregational nature of the polity of the churches of the Association of Pentecostal Churches of America. A degree of unity among the churches is reflected in the fact that the first of the manuals to follow appears to have served as a pattern for each of the respective local church manuals.