

A black and white photograph of a cemetery path. The path is paved and leads through a grassy area with several tombstones. In the background, there are large trees and a building. The lighting is bright, creating strong shadows and highlights.

Volume 58
Becky Gillespie, Editor

I believe that this is a practical world and that I can count on only what I earn. Therefore, I believe in work, hard work.

I believe in education, which gives me knowledge to work wisely and trains my mind and my hands to work skillfully.

I believe in honesty and truthfulness; without which I cannot win the respect and confidence of my fellow men.

I believe in a sound mind in a sound body and a spirit that is not afraid, and in clean sports that develop these qualities.

I believe in obedience to the law because it protects the rights of all.

I believe in human touch, which cultivates sympathy with my fellow men and mutual happiness and brings happiness for all.

I believe in my Country, because it is a land of freedom and because it is my home, and that I can best serve that country by "doing justly, loving mercy and walking humbly with my God."

Dedication

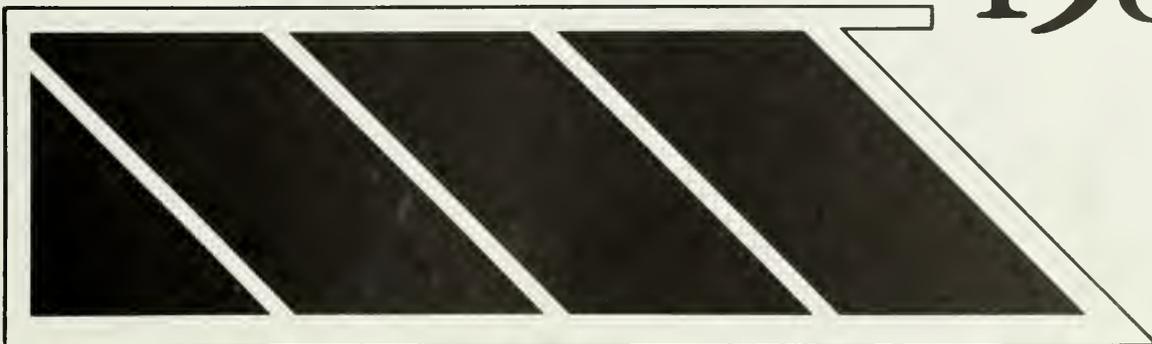

With this book, we honor a man whose life exemplifies a genuine concern for people. He is conscious of the part he has in molding the character of the hundreds of students that work under him. It is with great pleasure that the 1981-82 Darda is dedicated to Dr. John Chilton

ACTIVITIES

1982

Registration

The hassels of registration once again confronted new and returning students. The adjustment to college life comes much easier after surviving registration.

Freshman Mixer

A time to get acquainted and plenty of fun is provided by the S.G.A. for the freshmen at the beginning of Fall quarter. This is a chance to meet new people and form special friendships.

Slave Sale

Rat days, also known as freshman initiation, is sponsored by the sophomore class. Each freshman is given a sophomore big brother or sister. The freshmen dress up as rats and must do as any sophomore tells them. This day gives the freshmen a chance to stand out and unite together.

Dr. Adam's Appreciation Day

Students, faculty, and spokesmen for the Board of Trustees, all honored President Adam's during the final chapel service of Fall quarter. Dr. Adam's received a large TNC card with signatures from the student body and also, a briefcase.

Happy Holidays

TNC took a break from studies and got into the spirit of Christmas early by having a Christmas party in November. Prizes, food, and Santa Claus, were all part of the preparation for the Christmas season.

Club Rush

Club rush day gives each club on campus a chance to talk and demonstrate to students the qualities of their club. This gives students a chance to join different clubs and increase involvement in campus activities.

Another first at Trevecca; the presentation of The Creature From the Black Lagoon in 3-D vision. 3-D glasses were sold, and the film was such a success, there was an encore presentation.

Circle K Variety Show

The Circle K Variety Show, taking on the format of the Tonight Show, once again proved to be a success. Hosted by Don Garrison along with Finley Knowles, the evening festivities were enjoyed by all. Proceeds from this show will go toward the work the Circle K club is doing with the Tennessee Preparatory School.

The Variety Show host, Don Garrison, entertains the audience.

Dr. Leslie Parrott

The William T. Slonecker Lectureship has as its purpose to bring to Trevecca distinguished business leaders, professional and teachers. This year, Dr. Leslie Parrott was the speaker. As the author of numerous books, he has also traveled extensively throughout the world. Dr. Parrott spoke during two chapel services and also conducted discussion sessions.

Purple And White

The Purple and White game is an annual event. This year as always, it was a test of skill. The basketball team divides into two teams; one is purple and the other is white. This provides practice in an actual game-type situation and also an evening of enjoyment.

All-School Retreat

Cold hands but warmed hearts can always be found at Fall Retreat. This year was no exception. While the temperature dropped outside, inside speaker J. David Garrison and special guest Lillie Knauls inspired those who came. Many special memories resulted from this weekend of enjoyment and fellowship.

Sweet dreams!

Gary Ragsdale and Celeste Thompson look as though they need some help with breakfast.

A Wedding Storybook

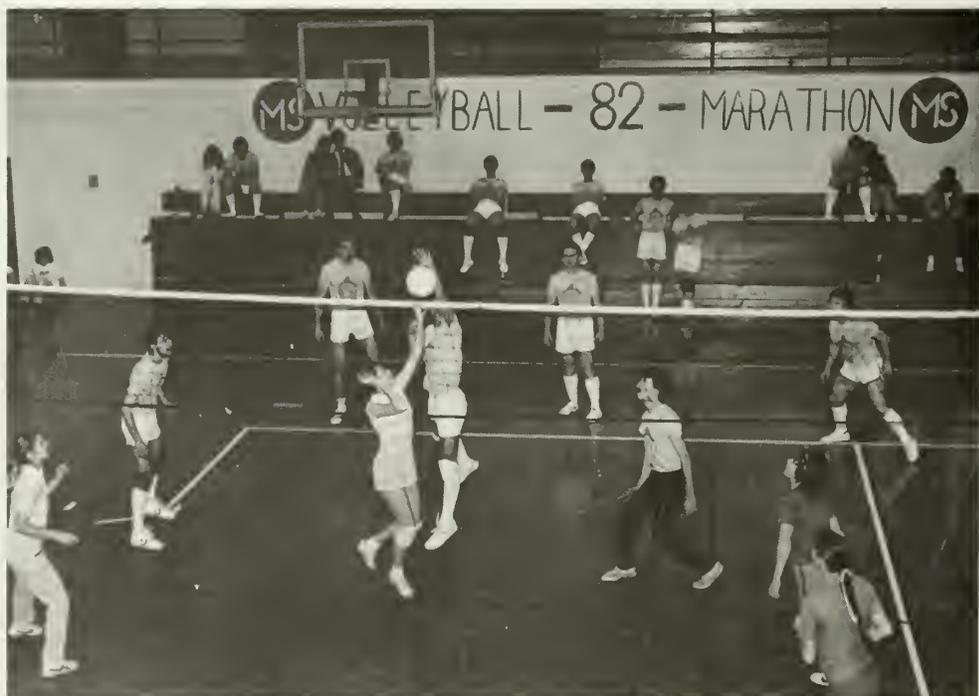

The Trevecca Gymnasium glowed as the Civinettes and Sigma Society presented a bridal fashion show. Members of both clubs modeled bridal and formal gowns. Included in the evening were entertainment, prizes, and many beautiful gowns. The proceeds from this bridal show went to the Tennessee Preparatory School.

Circle K Volleyball Marathon

Trevecca's Circle K Club held its 9th annual volleyball marathon March 5th and 6th. The purpose of the Marathon was to raise $5,000 for the National Multiple Sclerosis Society in Nashville.

Seated: Brenda Steen, Kim Skelnik. Back Row: Coach Carol Earnest, Gabrina Williams, Jill Shortinghouse, Mary Ann Schilling, Pam DeMatteo, Ann McLeary, Karen Green, Ann Driggers.

After a slow start, the Lady Trojans finished up what turned out to be a fine season. The season started slow for this young team which consisted of 4 Freshmen, 1 Sophomore, and 1 Junior. This was also Coach Earnest's first year as a coach at Trevecca. The season ended with a record of 14-14 and a second place finish in the VSAC tournament. Captain Brenda Steen and Mary Ann Schilling recieved the honor of being chosen to the all-conference team, while Ann McLeary was picked for the second team.

Head Coach Frank Wilson

The Trojan basketball team was off to a fast start as they defended the Volunteer State Athletic Conference championship. With 3 returning starters, Senior center, Greg Pemberton; Senior guard, Melvin Taylor; and Senior guard Calvin Holmes, the team had a strong start toward an exceptional season. Other returnees included Junior forward, Mark Williams, and Senior forward, Johnny Reynolds. Newcomers included Sophomore transfer forwards Reggie Suddeth, LeWayne Jones and Jeff Wood; Freshman center, Scott Stivers, and Freshman guard, Jonathan Collins.

Trojans!

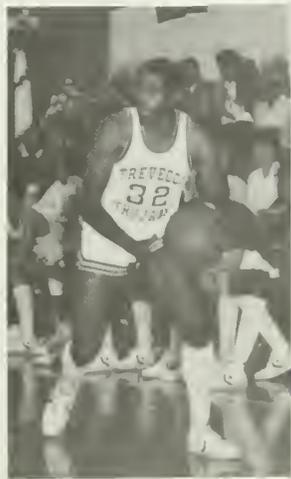

2 points more!

The Trojans ended the regular season with a record of 23-7, their best ever. The season was highlighted by 2 wins over nationally ranked David Lipscomb and also, Lemoyne-Owens. The season ended with the Trojans in second place in the VSAC conference. The Trojans advanced to the semifinals of the Western Division of the VSAC conference after a 53-45 win over CBC. But, Trevecca's hope of repeating as VSAC champs ended with Bethel College, when with only 4 seconds to go, the Wildcats broke the tie and won the game. Although the Trojans were given a chance for revenge, they saw defeat in the first round of the NAIA District 24 tournament.

We know what we are, but not what we may become.

William Shakespeare

What you can become does not depend on what you are, but rather upon what you are willing to let
God do with you.

William Boggs

Mrs. Shelia Apple Cummings

If one advances confidently in the direction of his dreams and endeavors to live the life which he has imagined, he will meet with a success unexpected in common hours.

"Everything is permissible" — but not everything is beneficial. "Everything is permissable" — but not everything is reasonable. Nobody should say "Everything is permissible."

Mr. Richard Guss

"Before I built a wall, I'd ask to know what I was walling in or walling out, and to whom I was like to give offense. Something there is that doesn't love a wall . . ."

Mr. Dwight Gunter

*God has not called us to success;
He has called us to faithfulness.
Our faithfulness is our success.*

*To accomplish great things, we must not only act, but also dream,
not only plan, but also believe.*

Miss Kim King

... Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be, and whatever your labors and aspirations, in all the noise and confusion of life, be at peace with yourself. For with all of its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it's still a beautiful world.

As Christ gave His life for us, so let us constantly give our lives to others in our daily pursuit of Christlikeness.

"Trust in the Lord with all thine heart and lean not to thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge Him and He shall direct thy paths. Proverbs 3:5 and 6

Mr. Finley Knowles

People are fun.
They make life what it is.
To go through college without learning
to enjoy friends is to not really
go through college.
I have learned at least one thing in four years with God's help:
There is never an excuse not to love
people.
Never.
— Finley —

Miss Nancy Coleman

A black and white portrait of a young woman with long, dark, wavy hair, smiling slightly. She is wearing a dark, patterned top with a high collar and a necklace with a small pendant. The background is plain and light-colored.

"The world and its desires pass away but the man who does the will of God lives forever."

— 1 John 2:17

"Jesus Christ is not interesting. He is profoundly, morally, and spiritually disturbing and challenging. If there is anybody who forces us to get off the fence and to enter the field of moral commitment, it is Jesus Christ. If He is God He deserves our worship not just our patronage, not just our admiration, but our adoration."

Special Thanks To:

Thanks to Howard Wall — who always had the answer for every problem. Carl Eby for his patience and hard work in getting the pictures to me on time. Harold McGeehee and American Yearbook Company for their hard work in publishing this yearbook. Sudlow Photography for prompt service and delivery of student portraits.

You believe that easily which you hope for earnestly.

*Remember that what you believe will depend very much upon what you are.
Noah Porter*

My Closing page and my last word. I have so many memories that I want to print. I have memories of the frustrations and upsets of being editor. However, the success of finishing this Darda far outweigh those. I have memories — sentimental memories and probably silly memories to any one but myself. Yet, I now remember along with my total exhaustion, the smiles, and the people who smiled.

A very special thank you to Howard Wall — my adviser. I couldn't have asked for a better adviser; thank you for all your time and hard work. To Carl Eby and his staff of photographers — I say thank you. You always came through. Carol — well what can I say. You always lifted my spirits just when I needed it. I'll never forget our many trips to Birmingham and all the evenings spent on the patio. By the way, I hear 1982 is a good year for chips. To my parents and my sister — thank you for your support and encouragement.

As you look through this yearbook, I hope it will bring back many memories to you. They may be sentimental or maybe silly, but which ever, these memories will one day be one of your most treasured possessions.
